General Comment

Please do not make regulations that deny me the right and ability to supplement my SS and retirement income. Options are one of the safest investments a person can make. It is true that many greedy people lose a lot of money in options. This is due greed. People are trying to hit a home run. Prudent use of options can be safer than buying the stocks outright. Please do not try to protect me from myself. I am a big boy and would like to keep the freedom I have now to invest the way I want. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jim Williamson
